ARFH President Commissioned Newly Equipped Youth Friendly Centres in Lagos State

With support from USAID, ARFH President/CEO, Prof. O.A. Ladipo commissioned newly equipped Adolescent and Youth Friendly Centres across three health facilities in Lagos State. The youth centres were commissioned on the 29th, 30th and 31st of March 2021 at Sango PHC, Massey Street Children Hospital and Badagry General Hospital respectively. The centre is aimed at increasing access of young people to sexual and reproductive health including HIV information and services.

The event also witnessed the signing of Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between ARFH and the three health facilities. In attendance were the Honourable Commissioner of Health ably represented by the Director of Disease Control, Dr. O.A Agboolagorite; Mrs. M. Adu representing the Ministry of Youth and Social Development, ICHSSA 2 team led by the Chief of Party, Dr. F. Iwuala; partners, and other eminent guests.

ARFH Advocated for Dedicated OVC Budget Line by Lagos State Government

In order to create a healthier Lagos, ARFH-ICHSSA 2 team led by the President/CEO of ARFH, Prof. O.A. Ladipo paid an advocacy visit to Mrs. A.A. Liadi, Permanent Secretary Lagos State Ministry of Economic Planning and Budget on the 29th of March, 2021. The visit was aimed at pressing for dedicated budget line for OVC activities at the state and LGA levels. This will undoubtedly enhance the sustainability and ownership of OVC Programme in Lagos State.
